The Purgatoire River Watershed

Our watershed covers over 2.2 million acres and is a large tributary of the Arkansas River. The Purgatoire River provides water for drinking, irrigation, household use, industries, businesses and provides recreation in the southern Colorado region.